

Recognition Awards 2019-2020

WOMEN SUPPORTING WOMEN SUPPORT | ACTION | LEGACY

Ontario Council of CFUW recognizes significant projects or activities undertaken by Ontario clubs that support the advancement of women, human rights and the common good locally, nationally and internationally.

The actions recognized may encompass education, lifelong learning, charitable fundraising, scholarships, advocacy, community action and involvement, fellowship and support. For example: new scholarships, the monthly lecture series, public awareness of issues through public forums and newsletter articles, candidates' meetings, letter writing campaigns, organizing a Fall Gathering, partnerships with other community organizations, projects within the community, etc.

Choose only one project of importance to your club during 2019-2020, and tell us about it. Is it new? Is it ongoing but your club achieved more during this past year? What progress was made and what were the results? Is it an activity for which your club has never been recognized?

Please complete this Word document and email to Sandy Thomson president.cfuwontario@gmail.com copied to your Regional Director by April 15.

CFUW Ontario Council thanks you for your work to support the advancement of women, human rights and the common good locally, nationally and internationally.
