

Suggestions for all of June Indigenous History Month:

150 Acts of Reconciliation-----Many ideas for things you can do.

http://www.edmonton.anglican.org/df_media/W1siZiIsIjIwMTgvMDEvMDMvMTQvMDMvMzkvMzgwYTBhNzItZWE1Mi00NTYxLWIwZGUtN2E5ZWlwNjk4ZmY2LzE1MGFjdHMucGRmll1d/150acts.pdf?sha=5bbcc6041032df2f

Barrie Public Library-----book suggestions and programs offered throughout the month.

<https://www.barrielibrary.ca/about-bpl/library-news/~583-June-is-National-Indigenous-History-Month>

Videos: Netflix: "Awake a Dream from Standing Rock"

"Keepers of the Game"

"When Two Worlds Collide"

Crave: "Rumble: The Indians Who Rocked the Earth"

"Kayak to Klemtu"

"Indian Horse"

"The Lesser Blessed"

Films: These may be in the library or you can purchase them.

"Boy" by Taika Waititi

"Rhymes for Young Gouls" by Jeff Barnaby

"Mekko" by Sterlin Harjo

"Lorena, Light-footed Woman" by Juan Carlos Rulfo

"The Body Remembers When the World Broke Open" by Kathleen Hepburn

Books: The Barrie Library has a good selection but here are a few more that have been recommended.

The Skyscrapers Hide the Heavens by J. R. Miller

All Our Relations and Seven Fallen Feathers by Tanya Talega

21 Things You May Not Know About the Indian Act by Bob Joseph

Presentations for June 21 only, Indigenous Peoples Day

Huron Historical Parks: 30 different workshops, sessions and speakers that will celebrate the heritage, diverse cultures, and outstanding achievements of Indigenous, Inuit, and Metis people. This is a free event but you need to register: <https://hhp-events.ca/>

CFUW Stratford is hosting an Indigenous Peoples workshop, June 21 at 3:00 p.m. To register, look up the CFUW Club Action Newsletter May 4 and scroll down to AGM Workshops.