

Standard Operating Procedure

All-Candidates Meetings¹ (Social Justice Committee) CFUW Perth and District

All candidates meetings are an opportunity for political candidates and residents to connect before an election. Residents have a chance to evaluate the candidates, political platforms, and ask questions about current issues.

All Candidates Meetings may be driven by a request from the community or initiated by the SJC and/or Executive. Several All Candidates Meetings may be necessary to cover the wide electoral district for provincial and federal elections. As of 2019, both Perth and Smiths Falls are located in the federal and provincial ridings of Lanark-Frontenac-Kingston (see Appendix 1).

Objectives of CFUW Perth and District All Candidates Meetings

1. To foster interest in civic engagement and political engagement;
2. To provide a public service which is central to the democratic process;
3. To provide an opportunity for politicians to connect with the voting public;
4. To enhance Club's visibility.

Organising an All Candidates Meeting

1. Research whether other community organisations are sponsoring community/voting district All Candidate debates, including dates, locations and times. Ensure that the CFUW Perth and District event does not encroach on other All Candidates Meetings. Consider collaborating with these other local organisations if the CFUW Perth and District's proposed date, time and/or place are overlapping.
2. In addition to SJ committee members, it is recommended that the SJC undertaking an All Candidates Meeting includes other CFUW Perth and District members who are experienced in publicity (engage the Publicity Chair from the Executive), interested in current issues and are active in the community.
3. Develop a budget. Include costs of printing, publicity, venue fees, refreshments and other expenditures.
4. Choose a venue, ensuring it is large enough to hold the anticipated crowd and can accommodate disabled persons. A venue with a stage where candidates can sit is preferable.
5. Select two alternate dates for the meeting (a few weeks before Election Day is ideal) and, following first contact with the political candidates, determine which is the preferred date. A weekday evening or during the day on a Saturday are ideal times to organize the meeting.
6. If possible, secure the venue BEFORE providing all details to the candidates. If choosing a school in the area, you must 'apply' through the Upper Canada District School Board's website. The process is lengthy and requires the approval of the school principal, thus it is necessary to apply in plenty of time (6-8 weeks prior to the event). The system seems to take longer to approve the application if it is submitted in the summer or at the beginning of the school year.
7. Determine the duration of the event; most all-candidates meetings are no more than 2 hours.
8. Contact all candidates and their managers by phone. Follow up in writing (emails) with details, format, and type of campaign materials that can be distributed by the participants. Advise candidates that no banners/placards/posters or combative materials are allowed but the candidate may bring campaign pamphlets to leave outside the entrance to the venue.

Note: Example introductory letters accompany this SOP (see Appendix 2).

Select a Moderator, Time Keeper and Bouncer

1. Select an experienced and 'firm' moderator who is a good public speaker, is politically aware, politically neutral and has a public profile.
2. Appoint a timekeeper who also can be firm. Use a stopwatch and timecards of 1 minute and 30 seconds to flash at candidates. Responses from candidates should be kept to 1 minute.
3. Designate at least one 'bouncer' since it may become necessary to ask some members of the audience to leave. Develop a protocol with the 'bouncer' regarding extricating belligerent/rude/offensive audience members.

Develop the Meeting Format and Questions (See Appendix 3 for Sample Questions)

1. Well in advance of the event, prepare a slate of short, concise, non-partisan questions to augment questions from the floor AND/OR take questions from the 'floor' before the meeting, collate them and use these to guide the discussion.
 - a) The event can also be organized as a more informal meet and greet, allowing candidates and residents to mingle and ask/respond to questions on a more individual basis.
 - b) The All Candidates Meeting could also be organized around a specific theme (e.g. women), or aim to cover number of key issue areas including the economy, foreign policy, the environment, human rights, immigration, women's issues, etc.

Publicize the Event (See Appendix 4 for Sample Press Release)

1. Send press releases to the local paper, online media and TV and radio community calendars before media deadlines and any community newsletters.
2. Prepare posters: include date, place, time and candidates' and moderator's names. Include CFUW's logo and a contact person from your Club. Send/post to schools, libraries, community groups, contact lists, social media, etc.
3. Set up a Facebook event page.
4. If appropriate, provide CFUW Perth and District promotion materials and select a member to host a table at entrance.

Equipment Requirements

Note: This is not an exhaustive list.

1. A sound system which can accommodate multiple microphones for the candidates (one each is preferred but one to share amongst 2 or 3 candidates can work), moderator and, if accepting questions from the floor, 2 or 3 on the floor for the public to use.
2. A podium or lectern for the moderator

3. Tables and chairs on the 'stage' for the candidates

 - a) Time placards – one minute, 30 seconds
6. A table and 2 chairs for the media on the floor in front of the stage

Several tables in the 'lobby' area; one for CFUW Perth and District materials, one for the public to use to write their questions (if this is the approach to be used), one for the question collator (if this is the approach to be used), and at least two for the candidates' material (identify area where the candidate may place her promotion material by a poster above with the Candidates' names)

6. Allow one-minute opening statement by each candidate.
7. Have moderator ask prioritized questions addressed to all candidates, giving them one minute each to answer.
8. For questions from the audience, alternate questions from microphones, one minute for answer from candidates addressed, followed by 30 seconds for other candidates to rebut or respond.
9. At the end of the event, moderator hands the meeting back to CFUW Perth and District:
